Information/allegations

Arabic and Kurdish migrants (group around 40-50 persons) have started a protest at the EASO area in RIC Pyli because of slow asylum procedure. The rest of the migrants refused to take part in the protest. HP officers present in the area monitoring (situation seems to be calm). No Frontex staff involved. After a meeting with the text removed - justification 4 and text removed - justification 4 the migrants decided to conclude the demonstration.

MeasuresAssessment*Final outcome

Text Removed - Justification 4 obtained information from text removed - justification 4 who was talking to a group of Kurdish migrants after they had a briefing with text removed - justification 4 and text removed - justification 4. Migrants complained about the long time they have to stay in the RIC, the living conditions, and slow asylum procedures. The text removed - justification 4 explained that the priority is to process the vulnerable groups, and promised to make text removed - justification 4 working on Sundays, as well as try to improve the living conditions
