

Mr. M. [REDACTED]

Subject: Access to documents application “European Coast Guard Functions Forum workshop on RPAS for Maritime Surveillance [#246137]”

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your interest in the activities of the European Maritime Safety Agency (EMSA).

Please be informed that your application has been registered and was processed in line with the provisions of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council regarding public access to documents.

We would like to draw your attention to the fact that, for applications in the remit of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, the channel to be used is: EMSA website/ Publications/ EMSA Documents/Documents Request Form, that will ensure a prompt handling.

As you have addressed your request to Information@emsa.europa.eu, there was a delay in its identification and registration as request for public access to documents.

In reply to your application for access to documents registered on 13 April 2022, whereby you requested: “The agenda and participants list of the European Coast Guard Functions Forum workshop on RPAS for Maritime Surveillance, held 15 and 16 February 2022 at your Lisbon headquarters, under the Presidency of Croatia; All presentations that were held at the workshop”, please be informed that the documents falling within the scope of your application have been previously made public in the context of another application for access to documents.

All the documents identified and the justification related to their partial disclosure (as applicable) can be found at the following link: European Coast Guard Functions Forum Workshop on RPAS for Maritime Surveillance 2022 - FragDenStaat.

In relation to your request for a direct reply to your given email address and not via a web platform, as already indicated in our previous replies for other applications received, we draw your attention to the fact that the platform used redacted this information from your application therefore the only contact detail that appears in your application/email is the email associated to your platform account.

Note that, in line with Article 7(2) of Regulation (EC) No.1049/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council regarding public access to documents, you may file a confirmatory application within 15 working days of receiving this email.

Kind regards,
EMSA Document Access Coordinator
