Your application for access to European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) documents

Dear Mr/Ms Doleschal,

Further to the consensus reached on 26 January 2022 re your application PAD-2021-00358, your application is divided into 16 applications with approximately 15 SIRs each to be considered consecutively with Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001¹ being applicable to each.

This application was registered on 1 June 2022, asking for access to

Application 7 - 15 SIRs

All Serious Incident Reports (SIRs) filed between August 2020 and now.

Please find 12 documents herewith attached. Kindly note however that some limited parts thereof fall under exceptions under Article 4 of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 and had to be expunged with detailed justifications in the attached legend.

The remaining three documents cannot be released as in addition the applicability of all exceptions indicated in the attached legend, they contain legal advice. In regard to this last point, access to the documents has to be denied as their disclosure would undermine the ability of Frontex to provide frank, objective, and comprehensive advice as the sphere of trust, in which this advice is provided, would be severely impaired. Simultaneously, the ability of Frontex to receive such frank, objective and comprehensive legal advice from external counsel would also be undermined. In addition, the legal advice concerns also information contained in the documents and is linked thereto in regard to Frontex position on contentious issues raised during ongoing court proceedings which is presently being formed, the release of these pieces of information contained in the documents would compromise the equality of arms and would diminish Frontex's ability to defend itself - especially by revealing the internal positions of a legal nature. An overriding public interest, that is objective and general in nature and not indistinguishable from individual or private interests, for the release of these documents is not ascertainable. In this light, access to the requested documents must be refused pursuant to Article 4(2) second indent of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 as their release would undermine the protection of legal advice.

In is thus that no partial release is possible.

Subject to any intellectual property rights of third parties, the document/s may be reused provided that the source is acknowledged and that the original meaning or message of the document/s is not distorted. Frontex is not liable for any consequence resulting from the reuse of this/these document/s.
