Our Client owns the exclusive making available rights, in particular for the territory of Germany, in and to the following series

- Arrow
- Lethal Weapon
- Supernatural
- The 100
- The Big Bang Theory
- Westworld
- You
- Young Sheldon

(in the following: the Series)

The Website offers a vast amount of copyright-protected content, consisting of series. The Website almost entirely consists of copyright-infringing material, i.e. content, the rights of which are owned by rightsholders, such as Our Client. On the Website, the copyright-protected content of Our Client is made available, in particular the Series. See e.g. the following links on s.to:

- <https://s.to/serie/stream/arrow>
- <https://s.to/serie/stream/lethal-weapon>
- <https://s.to/serie/stream/supernatural-zur-hoelle-mit-dem-boesen>
- <https://s.to/serie/stream/the-100>
- <https://s.to/serie/stream/the-big-bang-theory>
- <https://s.to/serie/stream/westworld>
- <https://s.to/serie/stream/you>
- <https://s.to/serie/stream/young-sheldon>

By making available the Series on the Website, you are clearly infringing Our Client's copyright. Pursuant to the CJEU decision GS Media (judgment of 8 September 2016, Case C-160/15, n. 55), already the linking to copyright protected content is a copyright infringement. The posting of hyperlinks to protected works, which are freely available on another website without the consent of the copyright holder, constitutes a 'communication to the public' if those links are provided with the pursuit of financial gain and the posting person knew or could have reasonably known the illegal nature of the publication of those works on that other website. Also, as operators of a linking portal site, the operators of the Website are infringing copyrights pursuant to the CJEU decision Stichting Brein (The Pirate Bay) of 14 June 2017 (case C-610/15, n. 47).

Please note that German courts have also ruled that the operators of structurally infringing sites - like the Website - infringe copyrights and can even be held responsible based on criminal law charges (see German Federal Supreme Court, decision of 11 January 2017, case 5 StR 164/16). The operators of the Website violate copyright themselves (German Federal Supreme Court, decision of 11 January 2017, case 5 StR 164/ 16; Regional District Court Leipzig, judgment of 14 December 2015, case 11 KLs 390 Js 9/15; see also CJEU GS Media, judgment of 8 September 2016, Case C-160/15, n. 55 and CJEU Stichting Brein (The Pirate Bay), judgment of 14 June 2017, Case C-610/15, n. 47).

You have already received a qualified attorney information letter from Our Client (via the law firm Boehmert & Boehmert) on 10 December 2018 regarding the infringement of the Series on the Website as well as a subsequent cease-and-desist letter on 12 December 2018 regarding the Series on the Website. Despite having received these letters you have not taken action to fulfill Our Client's claims.

In light of the copyright infringements described above, Our Client has claims under German copyright against you as the hosting provider of the Website. The available claims include, inter alia, injunction claims, claims for information, and damage claims.

In the name of and on behalf of Our Client, we ask you to immediately and permanently delete the Series from the Website and prevent future uploads of files containing any episodes of the Series.

Moreover, we ask you to provide detailed information on all revenues gained through the illegal exploitation of the Series as well as detailed information on the identity of all persons for whom you provide hosting services for the Website.

Furthermore, we request that you preserve any and all records related to your contractual relationship with respect to the content hosted, including, but not limited to any transactional information, agreements or correspondence between you and your customer.

We expect fulfilment of the aforementioned demands

no later than November 12th, 2020, 12 pm CET.

In case you do not act as a hosting provider of the Website, we request that you provide detailed information on the identity of the actual hosting provider of the Website including their name, address, e-mail-address and phone number

no later than November 12th, 2020, 12 pm CET.

This letter is not a complete statement of Our Client's rights in connection with this matter, and nothing contained herein constitutes an express or implied waiver of any rights, remedies, or defenses of Our Client in connection with this matter, all of which are expressly reserved.

(hereinafter "Our Clients").

This is further to our qualified notice of 10 December 2018 ("QUALIFIED NOTICE"). In this QUALIFIED NOTICE we have already informed you about the current facts and the legal situation in the present matter. We refer to these in full (attached).

This is a cease and desist letter to avoid court proceedings in Germany.

Despite the expiration of the deadlines in our QUALIFIED NOTICE, you are still acting as a hosting provider for illegal links on the websites "S.to / SERIENSTREAM.to / BS.to" (hereinafter "THE WEBSITES"), with the IP addresses 186.2.163.237 (S.TO), 186.2.163.190 (SERIENSTREAM.TO) and 186.2.163.124 (BS.TO), to files containing copyright protected content of Our Clients as listed in our QUALIFIED NOTICE (this content is hereinafter referred to as "CONTENT"). These links are made available to the public under the links (URLs) named in the exhibit to this cease and desist letter.

This infringes Our Clients' exclusive rights in the CONTENT under German Copyright law. As laid down in our QUALIFIED NOTICE, German law applies with respect to the identified infringements.

We request that your company does not tolerate abuse of its services to facilitate copyright infringements and that you are committed to prohibit unlawful use of your servers.

You have been made aware of the facts mentioned above and the clear copyright infringements linked to them, in particular the illegal providing of links to copies of the CONTENT of Our Clients.

According to German law, you have a duty not only to disable public access to the current copyright infringement and to make sure that the CONTENT is not re-uploaded onto your system. You also have a duty of care to prevent similar rights infringements in the future, which may be recognized just as clearly. You have violated these duties as the CONTENT of Our Clients is still available via links on THE WEBSITES as shown in the exhibit.

We hereby demand that you immediately,

at the latest December 12, 2018 (today)

cease and desist from making the CONTENT of Our Clients available through links on THE WEBSITES.

Our Clients now have injunction claims against you. You may settle such injunction claims by providing a cease and desist declaration containing an undertaking for a sufficient contractual penalty in case of breach of the cease and desist declaration. Also, please note that your breach of the aforementioned duties may result in damage claims by Our Clients against you. We await your cease and desist declaration until latest

December 12, 2018 (today).

Finally, under Sec. 101 German Copyright Act, Our Clients are entitled to detailed information as to who has used your services for the illegal making publicly available of the notified CONTENT on THE WEBSITES. Your obligation to disclose such information follows from Sec. 101 (2) German Copyright Act as you have provided services in a commercial capacity for obvious rights infringements.

Under Sec. 101 (3) German Copyright Act, you are therefore obligated to provide information as to name, address and other information allowing the identification of your customers, instructing you to host THE WEBSITES as well as all other information, which could serve to identify your customer, such as bank details or IP addresses used by your customers. In addition, we refer to Sec. 101 (5) German Copyright Act, under which you make yourself liable for damages to Our Clients if you supply false or incomplete information as a result of intent or gross negligence.

We hereby set a deadline for the disclosure of the respective information of December 12, 2018 (today).

In case you do not act as a hosting provider of THE WEBSITES, we request that you provide detailed information on the identity of the actual hosting provider of THE WEBSITES including their name, address, e-mail-address and phone number no later than December 12, 2018 (today).

Please note that this letter is not a complete statement of Our Clients' rights in connection with this matter, and nothing contained herein constitutes an express or implied waiver of any rights, remedies, or defenses of our client in connection with this matter, all of which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely

Dear Sir or Madam,

We are writing to you in the name and on behalf of our clients, namely

- 1.) Paramount Pictures Corporation, 5555 Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90038, United States;
- 2.) Sony Pictures Television Inc., 10202 West Washington Boulevard, Culver City, 90232, California, United States of America;

- 6.) Universal Cable Productions LLC, 100 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, California 91608, United States of America;
- 7.) Disney Enterprises, Inc., 500 South Buena Vista Street, Burbank, California 91521, United States of America;
- 8.) Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc., 4000 Warner Boulevard, Burbank, California 91522, United States of America;
- 9.) Sky Deutschland Fernsehen GmbH & Co. KG, Medienallee 26, 85774 Unterföhring, Germany

herein after "Our Clients". We hereby affirm, in our capacity as attorneys, that we possess the due authority to represent Our Clients.

This is a notice-and-take-down letter about copyright infringements occurring on the internet services SERIENSTREAM (S.TO) and Burning Series (BS.TO), websites hosted by you (the "Websites") under the IP addresses 186.2.163.124 (BS.TO), 186.2.163.237 (S.TO) and 186.2.163.190 (SERIENSTREAM.TO), currently available, inter alia, via the domains
SERIENSTREAM.to BS.to

Our Clients own the exclusive making available rights, in particular for the territory of Germany, in and to the films and series set forth in the attached Exhibit for the territory of Germany, or their associated companies of their respective company groups who are authorized to enforce these rights on behalf of Our Clients.

The Websites offer a vast amount of copyright-protected content, consisting of series. The Websites almost entirely consist of copyright infringing material, i.e. content, the rights of which are owned by rightsholders, such as Our Clients. On the Websites, the copyright protected content of Our Clients is made available, in particular the titles as set forth in the Exhibit.

By making available Our Clients' content on the Websites, you are clearly infringing Our Clients' copyright. Pursuant to the CJEU decision GS Media (judgment of 8 September 2016, Case C-160/15, n. 55), already the linking to copyright protected content is a copyright infringement. The posting of hyperlinks to protected works, which are freely available on another website without the consent of the copyright holder, constitutes a 'communication to the public' if those links are provided with the pursuit of financial gain and the posting person knew or could have reasonably known the illegal nature of the publication of those works on that other website. Also, as operators of a linking portal site, the operators of the Websites are infringing copyrights pursuant to the CJEU decision Stichting Brein (The Pirate Bay) of 14 June 2017 (case C-610/15, n. 47).

Please note that German courts have also ruled that the operators of structurally infringing sites – like the Websites - infringe copyrights and can even be held responsible based on criminal law charges (see German Federal Supreme Court, decision of 11 January 2017, case 5 StR 164/16). The operators of the Websites violate copyright themselves (German Federal Supreme Court, decision of 11 January 2017, case 5 StR 164/ 16; Regional District Court Leipzig, judgment of 14 December 2015, case 11 KLs 390 Js 9/15; see also CJEU GS Media, judgment of 8 September 2016, Case C-160/15, n. 55 and CJEU Stichting Brein (The Pirate Bay), judgment of 14 June 2017, Case C-610/15, n. 47).

In light of the copyright infringements described above, Our Clients have claims under German copyright against you as the hosting provider of the Websites. The available claims include, inter alia, injunction claims, claims for information, and damage claims.

In the name of and on behalf of Our Clients, we ask you to immediately and permanently delete the titles as set forth in the Exhibit from the Websites and prevent future uploads of files with the same content.

Moreover, we ask you to provide detailed information on all revenues gained through the illegal exploitation of Our Clients' content as well as detailed information on the identity of all persons for whom you provide hosting services for the Websites.

Furthermore, we request

that you preserve any and all records related to your contractual relationship with respect to the content hosted, including, but not limited to any transactional information, agreements or correspondence between you and your customer.

We expect fulfilment of the afore-mentioned demands

no later than December 11th, 2018.

In case you do not act as a hosting provider of the Websites, we request that you provide detailed information on the identity of the actual hosting provider of the Websites including their name, address, e-mail-address and phone number

no later than December 11th, 2018.

This letter is not a complete statement of Our Clients' rights in connection with this matter, and nothing contained herein constitutes an express or implied waiver of any rights, remedies, or defenses of Our Clients in connection with this matter, all of which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,
