Dear Working Group member,

I am pleased to invite you to our next plenary meeting of the European Education Area Working Group on Schools - Pathways to School Success strand. The meeting will take place in Brussels, at the European Commission premises on Thursday 18 January, from 10.00 to 17.30 and Friday 19 January, from 9.00 to 14.00.

at the following address: DG EAC premises, rue Joseph II 70, 1000 Brussels (room 013, ground floor).

Please find a draft agenda attached. The meeting aims at: a) continuing discussions around the topic of “Targeted support for groups at risk of exclusion - challenges and opportunities” and preparation of the forthcoming PLA in Malta (15-17 May 2024), and b) exchanging views on the results of the PISA 2022 survey, which have been disclosed by OECD last 5 December, and their impact at national and EU level.

The meeting will also include an ad-hoc joint session with the Commission Expert Group on supportive learning environments and well-being at school on 19 January. We will have a chance to hear and discuss the Expert Group’ initial proposals for recommendations for a whole-school approach to well-being at school. Our Working Group will further work on the topic of well-being in the second half of 2024.

We would appreciate if you could confirm your attendance by 5 January 2024 via the online system AGM. We kindly invite you to send your confirmation only via AGM.
